WHAT IS TOWN WATCH?

Town Watch is a volunteer organization made up of neighbors in the South of South neighborhood, including both homeowners and renters. Our primary mission is to patrol the neighborhoods in which our members live and be the "eyes and ears" for the community. Currently, we patrol the blocks from Grays Ferry Ave. to 15th St, between Bainbridge St. and League St.

WHAT DOES TOWN WATCH DO?

Town Watch members walk (in 2-3 person patrols) the neighborhood and report quality of life issues (using 311, 911, L&I, etc.). Participants are welcome to bring their dog on patrols!

WHY JOIN?

We are a diverse group that cares about our community. Joining Town Watch is a proactive step towards a safer and more united neighborhood without a huge time commitment (if possible, 1 hour a month). Plus, it is an opportunity to get to know your neighbors!
